JOURNEY OF FAITH, RUSTY BENTON

I don't remember a single Sunday in my childhood that I wasn't in church. I also never remember enjoying being there. I found early in life that God was awesome, but that certain versions of the church were probably not the best fit for me practically or theologically. And, as an NFL fan, being away from home on Sunday cut into my football watching time.

My parents divorced when I was twelve and I quickly replaced time in the church with time with friends, involvement in athletics and playing music.

In high school, a friend asked me to join a church basketball league but noted that if I played on the team, I had to go to church at least sporadically. This was my introduction to the Presbyterian church, and I found it more meaningful than I had any other church experience prior. Although, I still didn't attend regularly.

After graduating high school and finishing a few years of college I joined the US Navy. Soon after I enlisted, Heidi, my wife of thirty-two years now, and I married. We sporadically attended a Presbyterian church during our Navy stint. Once my enlistment ended, I took a job in corporate finance and completed degrees in philosophy and psychology wherein I was asked to deeply explore topics like truth, religion, and what it means to live a meaningful life.

After college, a minister friend asked if I'd considered attending seminary. In response, I asked if he'd considered counseling. We laughed, but through his question a seed had been planted.

After much prayer, discussion with my wife and minister, and the blessing of seeing Mother Teresa in person, I discerned a call to parish ministry.

God sent Heidi and me to Columbia Seminary in 1998. During Seminary I interned in one of the greatest churches ever. In fact, among the staff we referred to the church as "Camelot."

My first call after Seminary was to youth and mission ministry in a church near Nashville TN. The HOS in TN encouraged, taught and guided me in great ways. In TN, Heidi and I welcomed our wonderful daughter Allison.

After two years in TN, I was recruited to serve as one of two ordained pastors in a multi-campus congregation in Richmond VA. The church was growing rapidly. Our Upward basketball program had over 900 children enrolled. It was a great experience, and I was blessed to add what I could to life in that congregation.

After VA, I was called to a head of staff position in Greenville SC. I served in Greenville for nine years. In that time Allison became a gymnast and volleyball player, Heidi moved into corporate management, and the church discerned a call to focus on mission and outreach as we worked to assist others with struggles of transitional housing, hunger, and poverty.

After Greenville, I was called to a church just outside of Charlotte NC. In many ways, my experience there was similar to Atlanta's "Camelot" church. We focused our thoughts and prayers on discerning God's call and within a few years began an alternative worship service, and multiple community outreach and in-reach ministries which nurtured growth both within the church and within the community.

From Charlotte we were called to parish ministry in Charleston SC. Within a few months of moving to Charleston, Heidi was diagnosed with aggressive breast cancer. She fought it hard and is now in remission. Allison is now a senior in college studying aeronautics.

My time as HOS in Charleston has been unlike any call I've previously experienced. The pastor prior to me in Charleston committed suicide while serving the church. The congregation had been in decline before his death and began to plummet following it. Through God's guidance and Spirit, what was a dying church is now becoming a vibrant one whose congregation has found new life in the belief that God can and does work in incredible ways as we open ourselves to faith in our Lord.

Finally, I am blessed to be called to serve as HOS at Community Pres. Community's passionate love for God and neighbor was immediately evident to me. So also, was their dedication to putting that love to work in the life of both the congregation and community. In my PDP I note that I seek to fervently serve God. It is awesome to find folks who share that passion both for God and for sharing God's love with each other and the world. I'm excited to be able to do life together in Christ with such amazing people! Plus, the PNC rocks!

Rusty Benton Statement of Faith 2024

I trust and believe in the one absolute and triune God. I believe that all things have been created and are sustained by God's divine will, providence, and care. What part of creation can fathom the greatness of God? Creation exists in subjection to God and yet in the holy scriptures we are reminded that God has made humanity only a little lower than the angels. God's love for us is evident in the gifts of material blessings, understanding, the beat of our hearts, the breath in our lungs, the ability to love, and the redemption and salvation that has been made possible through Jesus Christ. We are given the chance to love the God we worship and know that this God so also loves us.

I believe in Jesus the Christ. Jesus is the fully human and fully divine Son of God and one person of the divine Trinity. On the night that he was born to the virgin Mary and her husband Joseph, angels joyfully proclaimed peace and hope to all of creation. I believe that Jesus is the perfect example of what it means to be a child of God. In his life and death, Christ set the example of what living in relation to God and others means. I believe that we should all strive to follow this example. In his death, Christ bridged the gap between creation and God that sin had created. Therefore, redemption with God is only possible through Jesus Christ. I believe that the grace and love given to humanity by God in Christ is through Jesus' sacrifice and cannot be earned or repaid. We can only respond in gratitude to God's love and enter into a relationship with God through divine love and mercy.

I believe the Holy Spirit is the person of the divine Trinity that is sent to creation by God to be with us and work in our lives. The Spirit offers us guidance, wisdom, power and love through prayer, scripture, Communion, community, worship, sacraments, preaching, teaching and of course service in God's name.

I give thanks for God's gifts given in the sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion. Jesus set the example for the church by being baptized and by offering the words of forgiveness and life as he shared a last meal with his disciples. We celebrate God's redemption and power each time we take of the bread and drink the cup knowing that our Lord's will for us is life abundant in the place of certain death. Baptism celebrates our unity and community as we proclaim that beyond our genes, our finances, our failures, or successes, we are drawn together by our common hope and belief that the greatest of all things is the love that our God has for all of us. I believe that The Holy Bible is God's divinely revealed and inspired word to humanity. It is the revelation for all people that guides us to a greater knowledge and understanding of ourselves, our world and of our God. The scriptures are a unique source of inspiration, faith, and guidance. It is God's living word through which the Lord of all is revealed personally, historically and theologically to the church and the world.

Lead Presbyter

Presbytery of St. Augustine

Report to Presbytery

As of this presbytery meeting, I have been blessed to labor alongside you for approximately eight months. As I have traveled throughout the presbytery visiting churches, meeting with pastors and elders, participating in committee meetings, and responding to a various needs and requests, I continue to be impressed by your God-given gifts and your commitment to serve Christ in a variety of ways. As my knowledge of the presbytery continues to grow, and I perceive opportunities for strengthening our witness, I will be working with the Coordinating Council and various committees to collectively discern the best ways to move forward.

Here is a snapshot of some of the places I have been engaged with in my ministry as the Lead Presbyter:

- Call Commission
- Trustees
- Coordinating Council
- Administration Committee
- Personnel Team
- Finance Team
- Working group on background check policy
- Task Force developing the policy on Antiracism

One of my goals is to get into as many churches as possible for worship and get to know the members of the presbytery. We have 53 churches in the Presbytery of St. Augustine, and I have worshiped in 35 of them. I continue to be in touch with Rebekah Rogers at Camp Montgomery on a regular basis, and recently have been participating in interviews for summer staff at the camp. The Presbytery staff and I gather almost every Monday morning to touch base, share how things are going in our lives and where we are currently sharing our time and energy for the presbytery. I recently scheduled and participated in our spring cluster gatherings. Four gatherings were held around the presbytery. We gathered to break bread, enjoy fellowship, and offer mutual support. I am planning on hosting these about once a quarter. A few people have mentioned, "we did that before when Paul Hooker was here." I am not sure when the gatherings stopped, but Paul left here for Austin Seminary over 12 years ago. I get the sense that the gatherings have been missed and are greatly appreciated. In fact, we had nearly 40 people participate in the recent effort. If you are a minister or a C.R.E., I hope you will be able to join us in the future. A save the dates communication recently went out from the presbytery and details will be arriving in your email soon.

In an effort to grow my God-given gifts and to offer my best I meet monthly with a coach, I also visit and reflect with my colleagues around the synod (via zoom), and I am part of Presbyterian Leader Formation (PLF). PLF is required for everyone who enters mid-council ministry. This process includes both required independent study and a week-long residency each year for the first three years. I consider myself a lifelong student and am happy to have the opportunity to gain experience alongside and from others engaged in this calling.

Personally, I am beyond grateful that Libby and I are back together again! She finished her interim role in Virginia Beach and made it to our home on April 15. Our house is slowly being transformed from a sea of moving boxes and chaos into a home. Yet, as Libby and I enjoy meals together, I am reminded of the words of Ellis Paul, "this house is just an address you're my home." Our son Mac who is finishing his sophomore year at Florida Gulf Coast University, will be with us this summer and we will be going on a cruise vacation together July 28th—August 4th. We are all looking forward to family time.

As your partner in ministry, I welcome your calls, visits, inquiries, and requests. It brings me great joy when the presbytery is able to offer good counsel, provide an answer, or point you in the direction of a valuable resource that might enhance your ministry. Of course, there is no way the presbytery office can answer every question or resolve every issue, but no matter what is unfolding I will do my best to make sure we are there to walk alongside you on the mountain tops and in the valleys. The Presbytery of St. Augustine has been blessed with incredibly talented people doing their best to serve Christ in a variety of ways. The more I learn about our churches and our ministries I am convinced that our best days are in front of us. I give thanks to God for the opportunity to serve Christ in this place.

Hurricane Recovery Update

With Hurricanes Ian and Nicole in 2022 and Hurricane Idalia in 2023, recovery continues across Florida. Many families and individuals who don't have the financial means to repair or rebuild their damaged homes have turned to the local Long Term Recovery Group (LTRG) in their community for help. LTRGs are made up of community organizations that help to provide resources for these homeowners, including building materials and volunteer labor. Clients go through a case management process to determine the need and what resources of their own they can bring. Funding and materials are donated by local, state, and national organizations.

Volunteers come from the local community and from outside of Florida to provide labor under the guidance of the LTRG's construction staff. Many of our churches are ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING SPECIAL OFFERINGS HUNGER • DISASTER • DEVELOPMENT

One Great Hour of Sharing dollars are at work in local communities! Through your faithful donations to OGHS and other designated giving, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance has been able to provide grant funding to support Long Term Recovery Groups repairing and rebuilding homes for survivors of Hurricanes Ian, Nicole and Idalia. Thank you so much for your support!

involved in recovery within their local communities: two churches are serving as volunteer host sites, many are scheduling mission trips or local volunteer workdays, and some have members involved with their local LTRG by serving on the LTRG board or one of its committees. FLAPDAN is involved with many of these LTRGs, providing guidance and connections to local resources and those available through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. Without the work of the LTRGs, many survivors would not be able to recover from these devastating storms. Please consider getting involved in the recovery effort and help make a difference for those in need of safe and secure housing!

Time to prepare for Hurricane Season!

Determine your risk:

Is your neighborhood prone to flooding? Storm surge? Tornado or wind damage? With soaring construction prices, do you have enough insurance coverage?

Hurricane supplies:

Restock your family hurricane kit. Don't forget your pets!

Special Needs Registry:

If you or someone you know has needs such as oxygen, medical equipment, insulin and other refrigerated medications or other special requirements, help them to register NOW with their county's Special Needs Registry. This gives officials important information to use in planning for

DID YOU KNOW?

STORM SURGE

- Is water that is pushed onto land as a hurricane makes landfall.
- Can range from a few feet to over 30 feet.
- Impacts coastal areas first, then moves inland.
- Is fast moving, fast rising and life threatening.
- Can wash away buildings and roadways.
- Know your evacuation zone! Know Your Zone

FLOOD

- Flooding can occur anywhere that topography and drainage patterns cannot efficiently move and store water away from development or other areas.
- Can be well inland.
 - Are you in a flood zone? Flood Maps vulnerable populations as well as allows first responders to provide special assistance during a disaster. Transportation to shelters can be provided for those in need.

Listen to your local authorities: Every county will have different plans and protocols best suited to their populations, communities, and geography. Your local officials have updated hurricane plans, evacuation routes and shelter information, including which shelters are pet friendly. Listen to your local weather, emergency management and city/county officials. Heed their advice.

Churches: Check and update your disaster plan. If you don't have one, start HERE. Make sure contact numbers for staff and others are current. Know your presbytery's disaster protocol. Review your insurance policies. Do you have enough church coverage? Assist the vulnerable people in your congregation and surrounding community by helping them gather hurricane supplies, sign up on the Special Needs Registry or by putting up their storm shutters and then checking on them after a storm.

Churches are a vital part of a community's response and recovery! Can you offer your building or grounds as a secondary post-storm shelter space, a point of distribution for supplies or a respite center for response workers? If so, please contact your local emergency management office and American Red Cross to let them know. They will work with you to determine if using your facility would be a possibility.

Please contact FLAPDAN with questions or if you need help creating or updating your disaster plan. We are here for you. Thank you for your continued support of FLAPDAN!

Zoughbi Zoughbi, the founder and director of the Palestinian Conflict Transformation Centre in Palestine.

St. Augustine Presbytery September 26-October 2, 2024

Zoughbi Zoughbi is a world-renowned speaker, trainer, counselor, activist and writer. He has written and edited extensive articles, booklets and books on the interdisciplinary topics of justice, peace and reconciliation and also on oral history and didactic stories.

Zoughbi, has been involved with KAIROS since its inception where he has been always feeling uplifted by their spirited action and prophetic voice for Justice. Known by the name "Wi'am," the Arabic word meaning "cordial relationships," the center offers mediation, training, and psycho - social counseling to help resolve community disputes and alleviate the suffering of the people. It includes a trauma-coping program for children, leadership training for women, ending community violence, trying to eliminate violence against women and children, and nonviolence education programs.

"The Israeli occupation has created an alarming deterioration of political, economic, environmental, psychological status and social structures," said Zoughbi, who founded the center in 1994. "But even in the midst of this deterioration, I experience great joy in responding to people's needs and enhancing their hopes."

Wi'am was honored with the 2010 Peacebuilding Award in the World Vision International Peace Prize competition for "successfully integrating traditional Palestinian mediation customs with innovative academic models of conflict analysis to address the very difficult circumstances of Palestinians living in the occupied West Bank. Zoughbi was also granted international Peacemaker Award 1993 from Washington physicians for Social Responsibility.

Zoughbi at Wiam, the Palestinian Conflict Transformation Center, had the privilege of receiving the Carnall Peace Award for 2023 for "Working within the Palestinian community to spread the values of peace and justice through conflict mediation and transformation and restorative justice since 1994".

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors Presbytery of St. Augustine, Inc. Jacksonville, Florida

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Presbytery of St. Augustine, Inc. (the "Presbytery", a Florida nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2023, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Presbytery as of December 31, 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Presbytery and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Prior Period Financial Statements

The 2022 financial statements were reviewed by us, and our report thereon, dated April 24, 2023, stated we were not aware of any material modifications that should be made to those financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. However, a review is substantially less in scope than an audit and does not provide a basis for the expression of an opinion on the financial statements as a whole.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fait presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, menagement is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Presbytery's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

To the Board of Directors Presbytery of St. Augustine, Inc. Jacksonville, Florida

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Presbytery's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Presbytery's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. ORGANIZATION

Presbytery of St. Augustine, Inc. (the "Presbytery", a Florida nonprofit organization), that operates as a constituent of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America ("PCUSA"). The Presbytery is supported through assessments and contributions from the congregations of the Presbyterian Churches located in Florida's northeast and north-central regions to which it is dedicated to providing support and leadership.

The PCUSA's governing bodies consist of the General Assembly, the Synod of the South Atlantic, the Presbytery, and the Session. The constitution of the PCUSA designates that all property held by or for a particular church, a presbytery, a synod, the General Assembly, or the PCUSA, whether legal title is lodged in corporation, a trustee or trustees, or an incorporated association, and whether the property is used in programs of a particular church or of a more inclusive governing body or retained for the production of income, is held in trust nevertheless for the use and benefit of the PCUSA.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Presbytery have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, whereby revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred. Net assets, expenses, distributions, gains, and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donorimposed or other external restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Presbytery and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- The change in net assets with donor restrictions.
- The change in net assets without donor restrictions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. These estimates are based on management's knowledge and experience. Accordingly, actual results may differ from these estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on deposit in banks and invested in liquid assets with maturities of less than three months when acquired. The Presbytery maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits.

Investments

Investments are composed of mutual funds and are carried at fair value. Investment return is presented net of investment fees.

Fair Value Measurements

Authoritative guidance establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). As a basis for considering such assumptions, the three tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value are as follows:

 Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets;

Level 2: Inputs, other than quoted prices in active markets, that are observable either directly or indirectly; and

Level 3: Unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data, which require the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions.

An asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable consist primarily from churches and are recorded net of an allowance for expected losses. The allowance is estimated from historical performance and projection of trends. Outstanding balances are closely monitored by management and balances considered to be uncollectible are written off at the end of each year. During the year, the Presbytery writes off all accounts receivable, and unconditional promises to give ("receivables") balances deemed to be uncollectible. If a portion of the remaining receivables balances are considered questionable regarding full collection, Presbytery will provide an allowance for doubtful accounts for those questionable accounts.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONCLUDED)

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, if purchased. Donations of property and equipment are recorded at their estimated fair market value at the date of donation. Such donations are reported as without donor restriction unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and furnishings are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, expirations of donor restrictions are reported when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. Donor restricted net assets are then reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions at that time. Expenditures or renewals or improvements that either materially add value or prolong the useful lives of assets are capitalized. Expenditures that are less than $1,000 are expensed as incurred. Property and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, ranging from three (3) to forty (40) years.

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as premises and equipment, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be recoverable. The Presbytery assesses the recoverability of long-lived assets by determining whether the assets can be recovered from future cash flows.

Recoverability of long-lived assets is dependent upon, among other things, the Presbytery's ability to continue to achieve profitability so as to be able to meet its obligations when they become due. In the opinion of management, based upon current information and projections, long-lived assets will be recovered over the period of the benefit.

Right of Use Assets and Lease Liabilities -

Leases are capitalized as a right of use asset and lease liability. Cash flows are discounted at the risk free rate for instruments of comparable maturity at the time of commencement. Management elects to expense any short term leases with a term of twelve (12) months or less over the respective lease term.

Net Assets

Grants and other contributions of cash and other assets are reported as net assets with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Contributions received with donor-imposed restrictions that are in the same year in which the contributions are received are classified as net assets without donor restrictions.

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing the programs and services of the Presbytery have been summarized on a functional basis. Directly identifiable expenses are charged to programs and supporting services. Expenses related to more than one function are charged to programs and supporting services based on management estimates of time and usage by personnel and programs. Although management believes the methods used were appropriate, other methods could produce different results.

Donated Services

A substantial number of volunteers have donated certain clerical services to the Presbytery. These donated services are not presented in the financial statements since the services do not require specialized skills.

Expense Allocation

For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Presbytery allocated general and administrative among the programs benefited. The allocation was based on each of the program's proportionate share of total revenue.

Reclassifications

Certain accounts in the prior-year financial statements have been reclassified for comparative purposes to conform with the presentation in the current-year financial statements.

3. MANAGEMENT OF LIQUIDITY

The Presbytery has financial assets available within one year of the statement of financial position date for general expenditures as follows.

		2023	_	2022

PRESBYTERY OF ST. AUGUSTINE, INC.

MANAGEMENT OF LIQUIDITY (CONCLUDED)

None of the financial assets described above are subject to donor or other contractual restrictions that make them unavailable for general expenditures within one year of December 31, 2023 and 2022. As part of the Presbytery's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities and other obligations come due.

The Presbytery's investments and accounts receivable that are restricted totaled $141,473 and $401,034 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. These amounts were not available due to donor imposed restrictions within one year of the statement of financial position date and amounts set aside for long term investing.

6. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Presbytery obtained a note receivable in the sale of property. The note was in the amount of $300,000 and written on September 7, 2023. Monthly payments of principal and interest are received in the amount of $2,781 with a stated interest rate of 7.5% until the note matures on October 1, 2028 at which time a balloon payment is due.

Future minimum payments are:

8. PROMISES TO GIVE

Each year the Presbytery asks its member churches to submit pledge cards indicating the donations the churches intend to give for general support and various special projects during the upcoming year. The pledge cards clearly indicate that the information is to be used only for the Presbytery's budgetary purposes and that the churches may rescind the pledges at any time. Since these pledges do not meet the criteria for revenue recognition under FASB ASC 958, they are not reflected as contributions in the statement of activities until the pledges are collected.

9. NET ASSETS RELEASED FROM RESTRICTIONS

The source of net assets released from donor restrictions by incurring expenses satisfying the restricted purposes, by occurrence of events specified by the donor or by the passage of time totaled $263,987 and $154,121 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

10. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

In exercising it oversight responsibility, the Presbytery has made loan guarantees and commitments for several churches that have built or remodeled their facilities and properties. These guarantees and commitments obligate the Presbytery to honor the various mortgages if the respective churches fail to make required payments, and they are not recorded in the Presbytery's financial statements. The Presbytery believes that these guarantees and commitments do not represent unusual risks as the mortgages are collateralized by church facilities and properties. The Presbytery guaranteed approximately $3 million and $3.28 million in church mortgages at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

11. INCOME TAXES

Pursuant to a determination letter received from the Internal Revenue Service, the Presbytery is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and as such, is liable for tax only on business income unrelated to the purpose for which it is exempt.

The Presbytery evaluates its tax positions for any uncertainties based on the technical merits of the position taken. The Presbytery recognizes the tax benefit from any uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be upheld on examination by taxing, authorities.

Currently, the tax years ended 2022, 2021 and 2020 are open and subject to examination by the Internal Revenue. Service. However, the Presbytery is not currently under audit nor has the Presbytery been contacted by any of these jurisdictions.

12. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Presbytery has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements through April 26, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. As of this date, the Presbytery is under contract with an unrelated, party to purchase the Highlands property in the amount of $1,250,000. The closing of the sale is expected to occur in May 2024. Important Information on Paying Exempt Employees

There has been a major announcement from the Department of Labor Wage and Hour Division that affects churches that employ exempt employees.

The DOL announced that effective July 1, 2024 the new minimum salary amount required is $43,888. The minimum will be raised to $58,656 effective January 1, 2025.

There are possible court injunctions that may affect the implementation; however churches affected should have a plan.
